

12th Sunday in Ordinary Time Ministerial Guide

Lord Jesus, you who raise the storm, Lord have mercy

Christ Jesus, you who impel us forward, Christ have mercy

Lord Jesus, you who calm the storm, Lord have mercy

Readings

Job 38: 1, 9=11 “The Lord addressed Job out of the storm and said,”

2 Corinthians 5: 14-17 “Brothers and sisters, the love of Christ impels us.”

Mark 4: 35-41 “Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?”

COLLECT

Grant, O Lord, that we may always revere and love your holy name, for you never deprive of your guidance those you set firm on the foundation of your love. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever.

INTERCESSIONS

God our Father, we have confidence in your majestic power: you shut within doors the sea and tell the waves, “Thus far you shall come but no farther”, and for that reason we dare to bring our petitions to you.

1. We pray for ourselves and our loved ones. Teach us to trust in you; teach us to live not for ourselves but for all our brothers and sisters, we pray to the Lord
2. We pray for visitors to our town, may they delight in God’s creation and return home, safe and sound, to do your will, we pray to the Lord.
3. We pray for those battling the Coronavirus, for those who succumbed to it, and for the medical professionals who are on the front lines of the struggle, we pray to the Lord.

4. We pray for the success of the evangelizing mission of the Church, and especially for the Yarumal Missionaries and for the Society of African Missions, we pray to the Lord.

5. We pray for those who need God's healing touch, and especially for Kyle Craig, Tom Weiskopf, Mike Varga, Catherine Mulvehill (Pat Scott's mom), and for those who have asked us for our prayers, we pray to the Lord.

6. We pray for those who have gone ahead of us, marked by God's grace, and especially for Stewart Park, Bev Hartford, and Ambrose, the brother of Fr. Peter Mikwabe, who works in this Diocese, we pray to the Lord.